

EDIBLES

DRAWER 201 UNCONVENTIONAL MATERIALS

71 2009 US 5 05 812

Portrayals of Abraham Lincoln

Edibles

Excerpts from newspapers and other sources

From the files of the Lincoln Financial Foundation Collection

GOOD ENOUGH TO EAT

Marius Philippeau, pastry chef at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, paints portrait of President Lincoln on block of sugar, using different-colored chocolate for colors, a knife and paintbrush for tools. It took six hours

Philadelphia
2-13-39

Class to Erect Chocolate Cabin as Lincoln Tribute

Los Angeles Times 2-11-41
A sextet of special guests from classes in the Times Roof Garden Auditorium has been changed to the Esther Brown home service bureau will appear at Marian Manners' cooking class tomorrow to present a program honoring Abraham Lincoln's birthday anniversary. 1:30 p.m. with doors opening at 12:30 as usual. Hot coffee will be served before the program starts.

Miss Brown will utilize cookery, the science in which she excels, as the medium of her tribute. She will make a miniature log cabin with chocolate lady fingers and other ingredients as delicious as the entire effect is unique.

Others to appear on the program are the Mayfield brothers, who will sing spirituals. Clarence Armour will demonstrate as a special, unusual feature the duties of a butler and give ideas for correct serving when entertaining at formal and informal parties.

Miss Brown will present a trained personal maid who will explain and go through the many duties of that domestic office.

Starting hour of the regular Wednesday afternoon cooking

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2015

https://archive.org/details/portrayalsofabralinc_3

